

Minutes of Quaker Arts Network Annual General Meeting,

Saturday 25 May 2013 at Friends House London

The AGM was convened after a welcome and various presentations by Fiona Meadley, Linda Murgatroyd, Andrew O'Hanlon, Anne McNeill and June Buffery. The QAN website and calendar were introduced, finances discussed, the possibility of future art exhibitions at Friends House raised, and forthcoming events flagged. About 50 members and potential new members attended.

During the AGM, Friends agreed the following minutes:

- (a) To appoint as Convenor (Fiona Meadley); Secretary (Linda Murgatroyd); Membership secretary (June Buffery); Treasurer (Christine Tollerton); and Committee Members (Anne McNeill, Penny Robbins, and Jill Green).

- (b) Membership of QAN will be free, and QAN will fund its work by donations, supported by volunteers.

- (c) Future AGM's will be held to coincide with Britain Yearly Meeting.

- (d) Accounts will be prepared to the year end 31 December, and the first set of QAN accounts will be submitted at the next AGM in August 2014.

Note:

After the AGM, the following people indicated an interest in volunteering on the committee: Roisin Brennan from Lancaster Meeting and EMEYF; and Chris East from Wanstead Meeting, NE Thames. Volunteers for a working group on exhibitions: Judith Bromley Nicholls; Jill Green; Penny Robbins; Fiona Meadley.

Fran Hicks, part of the planning team for Yearly Meeting 2014, has indicated interest in further discussions.

Signed:

Fiona Meadley
