

QUAKER ARTS NETWORK

Sharing Light Creatively

Saturday 18th April 2020

11.30 to 5pm

A day of fellowship and creative arts

Worthing Quaker Meeting House

34 Mill Road, Worthing, BN11 5DR
(a short walk from West Worthing station and from the beach)

Programme

10.45 Arrivals and refreshments

11.30 am Quaker Arts Network AGM

Revising our Book of Discipline:

exploring potential roles for the arts.

1 pm Lunch

2pm options:

Sharing and celebrating Light in Song led by Alec Davison and Tony Biggin of Friends in Tune

or

Sharing Light in words and images

For this hands-on workshop, you are invited to bring one or two short texts or images that you think might have a place in a future Quaker anthology, to share with others and inspire creativity.

3.45 Tea, cake and conversation

4.30 Sharing in Worship.

5 pm Close.

All welcome. Free.

Please book your place in advance by emailing quakerartsuk@gmail.com.

- Please let us know if you have any special needs whether dietary or other.
- Young people under 18 should be accompanied by an adult.
- Refreshments provided
- If you need financial help for transport, please consider approaching your local Meeting or email us at Quakerartsuk@gmail.com

If you would like to stay overnight locally and would like advice please contact krumgoldelena@gmail.com

