Accommodation options

(nights of 19th and 20th July 2019)

A number of residential options are available and non-residents are welcome. Swarthmoor Hall can provide evening meals for a few non-residents, but numbers are limited.

Please book accommodation and meals early to avoid disappointment.

A limited amount of bursary help will be available. Please also consider applying to your local Meeting for bursary assistance if needed.

- Residential Accommodation at Swarthmoor Hall

Accommodation at Swarthmoor is limited, and priority will be given to those booking for both nights, from supper on 19th to breakfast on 21st. There are very few single rooms. If you have special need for one, please say so. These prices are per person for two nights and include breakfasts and fees. Evening meals are extra.

- Bed and Breakfast accommodation in Barrow-in-Furness

The Quaker-run Sanctuary Guest House in Barrow-in-Furness has been reserved for QAN until the end of May (sleeps 9 in 5 rooms). After that, other bookings may be taken.

£70 per person for two nights (£50pp if sharing a double room), including breakfast and fees.

Car or taxi (about £10 each way) needed to get to Swarthmoor, shared lifts possible. The Guest House is near the railway station. Details <https://sanctuaryguesthouse.co.uk>

- Camping at the Swarthmoor Meeting House.

£20 for two nights per person. The Meeting House barn is available for gathering, and has cooking and toilet facilities. Campers can sleep in tents or in the Meeting House; bring your own equipment. Self catering except for lunch.

We would need one of the campers to liaise with others; please indicate if you are willing to do this.

- Non-Resident

£10 per adult. This includes a simple picnic lunch for those attending the morning session. Children free but must be accompanied by a responsible adult and book places in advance.

Meals

All meals will be vegetarian.

A simple picnic lunch will be provided at the Meeting House on Saturday 20th.

Food and drinks for do-it-yourself continental breakfasts is included in the price for those resident at Swarthmoor Hall and the Sanctuary Guest House.

Evening meals are available at Swarthmoor Hall's Barn Café at £15 each. Numbers are limited, so please book evening meals when booking your accommodation.

Campers will need to bring their own food (except Saturday lunch). There is a small shop in Swarthmoor village and Ulverston has plenty of shops. The Meeting House has a kitchen and toilet facilities but no fridge or shower.
