

Quaker Arts Day & AGM in Birmingham 1 June

We are planning to hold an in-person Annual General Meeting as part of a day of varied arts-related activities at the Priory Rooms in central Birmingham, on Saturday 1st June from 10.30am to 4pm (coffee from 10am). If you would like to raise at the AGM we need to hear from you very soon at quakerartsuk@gmail.com. We will circulate an agenda and papers before the meeting.

The morning, including the AGM itself, will be blended with a Zoom element, and we need you to tell us on the form below if you want to receive the Zoom link.

Some of us will be staying the night before at Premier Inn at Exchange Square and eating together at a local restaurant. We'd love it if you could join us and will send you details if you wish. You would need to arrange your own overnight accommodation in Birmingham.

Contributions to the day

As well as an AGM, we would like to include opportunities for Friends to share and learn about each other's work in different parts of the country. If you'd like to share something, please tell us on the form below or drop us a short outline by email. If you are coming in person, you may like to bring a small piece of your own creative work.

The morning will include information and discussions about current QAN activities such as the Loving Earth Project, and QAN's participation in this year's Greenbelt Festival, as well as presentations by artists and the launch of a new book. The afternoon is expected to include a poetry workshop, a "seated dance" session, and movies from our Fox@400 short films project.

Accommodation and catering

It would help our planning considerably if you could return the form below as soon as possible. A vegetarian sandwich lunch will be provided: do you have any dietary restrictions? (We will ask you to pay for lunch but other refreshments during the day will be paid for by QAN.)

Any updates will be sent to those who have registered for the event nearer the time.
